The Carter G. Woodson Foundation receives additional support from the National Endowment for the Arts, New Jersey Committee for the Humanities, New Jersey Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemorative Commission, Mid Atlantic Arts Foundation, Mutual Benefit Life, New Jersey Bell Telephone, Vogue Housing Connection, Adolph Coors Company, Bally's Park Place Casino Hotel, Public Service Electric and Gas and New Jersey Transit.

This endeavor would not have been realized without the knowledge, guidance and creative contributions of Cynthia Agee, Rita Henderson, Valerie Wilson Wesley, Dr. Lenworth Gunther, Edward Pierson, David Maiullo, Lewis Cole, Gregory Sullivan, Bill Ware and Richard Ellis, Supervisor of the Audio Visual Department for the Newark Board of Education. Judges for the essay and art contests included: James Brown, Newark Public Library; Robert Burnett, New Jersey Historical Society; and Bisa Washington, Visual Artist.

Sincere gratitude is extended to the administrators, principals, teachers and students of the participating schools. We appreciate your enthusiasm and cooperation which greatly enhanced the success of the Paul Robeson Education Project.
